

Florida CHAPTER

FL-QUIC: Florida Quality Improvement in Cardiology Projects for 2020

Timing and Mode of CRT ICD Out of Service	Lakeland Regional Health System	Lakeland	Jeffrey Williams	Lcaep@hotmail.com
Reducing 30-day Heart Failure Readmission Rates with a Nurse Practitioner Led Multi-Disciplinary Transitional Care Clinic	Tampa General Hospital	Tampa	Melissa Joseph DNP	melissajoseph@tgh.org
Improving Fluid Balance Assessment of Patients on the General Medical Wards	UF Health, Jacksonville	Jacksonville	Michael Omar	Michael.Omar@jax.ufl.edu
Decrease CHF readmission rate at Regional Center Medical Bayonet Point	Bayonet Point RMC	Hudson	Jessica Joseph-Alexis, DO	jessicajo@pcom.edu
Implementation of Standardized Note Templates to Improve Patient Quality Care	University of South Florida	Tampa	Aimon Miranda, PharmD, BCPS	achanta1@usf.edu
Outcomes Registry For Vascular Access Complications With Pacemaker And Defibrillator Implantation	Mayo Clinic	Jacksonville	Patrick Fitzgerald, MD	fitzgerald.patrick@mayo.edu
The Heart Success Clinic and Reducing Readmission Rates at a Community Hospital	Advent Health Sebring	Sebring	Dr Deepti Bhandare	deepti.bhandare@adventhealth.com
Improving Cardiology clinic by decreasing unproductive time	UF Health, Shands Gainesville	Gainesville	Hussam Hawamdeh M.D	hfawzi88@gmail.com
Influenza vaccination for CHF Patients	Aventura Hospital Medical Center	Aventura	Linda Ferrer	dralindaferrier@gmail.com
Practical Application of Mortality Risk Assessment in PAH	Advent Health Orlando	Orlando	Melisa Wilson, DNP, APRN	melisa.wilson@adventhealth.com

Our Sponsor

Overview

- The ACC Florida Chapter Quality committee wants to better understand the current state of quality cardiovascular care in Florida.
- To accomplish that, we sponsor the Florida Quality Improvement in Cardiology (FL-QUIC) initiative.
- These projects were submitted by chapter members to showcase their local efforts to improve quality cardiovascular care.
- Submit your project! Email us at flquic@accfl.org

